Right Beside You.

December 2, 2015

The most difficult role in ministry is that of the pastor and his wife. Pastors often feel lonely, isolated, frustrated, and internalize their hurts. The wife of a pastor deals silently with the struggle of her husband and her pain. The smiling faces in public do not reveal the reality of their difficulties. I am grateful for the ministry of Jim Parrish and Shepherds Help. He provides a safe and loving environment for encouraging and healing for our pastors and wives. I recommend Jim to you and your ministry.
